Dear Mr. Walters:

Our Order has unanimously voted to award you its Freedom Award medal at our Annual Banquet in Washington, D. C. This will be on the evening of Monday, April twenty-eighth, at the Sheraton Park Hotel. The reception commences at half past six o'clock, and the dinner, at half past seven o'clock. The dinner will undoubtedly continue until half past nine o'clock. We appreciate that you have numerous demands upon your time, and if you cannot be with us during all the evening, we should be happy if you were able to appear anytime during the period mentioned. A partial list of former recipients is enclosed. Mrs. Walters would, of course, be most welcome also. We should appreciate a telephone call so that we may prepare our program for the printer.

Hoping so much to have the pleasure and honor of your company,

Sincerely yours,

Asa E. Phillips, Jr.

The Order of Lafayette

1958

The Order of Lafayette was founded by The Honorable Hamilton Fish in 1958.

Each year the Order presents a Freedom Award to prominent individuals for their fight against Communism. Among those who have received the Freedom Award are President Herbert Hoover, His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, United States Senator Strom Thurmond, Mr. H. L. Hunt, Mrs. Claire Lee Chennault, The Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen, General Mark Clark, The Honorable Clare Boothe Luce, United States Senator Barry Goldwater, The Honorable Katharine St. George, Mr. William F. Buckley, Jr., Mrs. Robert R. McCormick, General William C. Westmoreland, General Graves B. Erskine, United States Senator James L. Buckley, General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, General of the Army Omar N. Bradley, President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Mr. Jimmy Stewart, Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, The Honorable Charles Lucet, General A. C. Wedemeyer, and Admiral Chester W. Nimitz.

OBJECTIVES

To maintain mutual understanding and cooperation between the United States and France.

To uphold and defend the ideals of justice, freedom, democracy and peace, for which we fought in two World Wars.

To unite the destinies of both our Republics in defense of a free world, realizing that any weakening of our traditional friendship would help World Communism and jeopardize the survival of Free Nations.

MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

Regular Members

All Commissioned Officers of the United States Armed Forces, male or female, who served in France during World War I, or in France or French possessions during World War II are eligible for membership in The Order of Lafayette.

American Officers who served in France during World War I with The Lafayette Escadrille Flying Corps, The American Field Service, The French Foreign Legion, or with our Allies, are eligible for membership.

Any Officer of the United States Armed Forces participating in an invasion
